What the heck is EAS/CAP compliance?

Some call it 'Peace of Mind', while others call it one step closer to total government control of the air waves.

Either way, EAS/CAP radio equipment is now the law of the land.

The new system allows the government to interrupt our broadcast to declare a state of emergency.

The crux of this message?
We need one of these blue boxes in order to maintain federal compliance and keep our FCC radio license.

It's a must, and it's needed immediately. The cost for the blue box shown above is $2,600

A gift to HEY radio this month is crucial. Please help.

Consider one of these gifts:

12 gifts of	$50
4 gifts of	$250
2 gifts of	$500

We pray that God will reach into the hearts of our friends and provide for this need.

Thank you,
Bill

License renewal time! FOR EVERYBODY!

In the state of Michigan, every radio and television station license in the entire state is set to renew every 8 years. And, even though 88.9 has been on the air for only 4 years, we're still right there with every other station. Time to RENEW!

There's a little more to it ... In the months of April and May, we're required to air a Public Service announcement stating our intention to apply for renewal.

Then you, the public, the listener, have the opportunity to view our Public file, and petition against us if you wish.

That sounds fair, right? Well, I would hope if you go to the trouble of petitioning against any radio station, how about going after the ones who make it their business to fill the heads of today's youth with thoughts of sex, drugs, and violence.

HEY Radio isn't the problem....it's the cure.

For 4 years, thanks to your support, we're still banging out clean, cuss free, music.

"Positive messages, rhythmic music that lifts people up. It's one of the greatest encouragers of our time." Zig Ziglar

Impossible

My friends find another bruise
I'm a end up on the news
I just don't know what to do

God I'm calling you
Send an angel send two
I want a move but I'm trapped in the outer room
I know you hear me clearly

I'm weary
Come and fill me with your power heal me

Pop Christian Song by Manifest heard only on
88.9 HEY RADIO

The song on the left, Impossible, by Manifest reveals the weaknesses inside that can only be abated by the power of the Holy Spirit. The artist asks for healing.

The song on the right, Part Of Me, by Kate Perry depicts a person who was used and humiliated, perpetuating bad relationships and demoralization.

Part Of Me

Days like this I want to drive away
Pack my bags and watch
your shadow fade
You chewed me up and spit me out
Like I was poison in your mouth
You took my light, you drained me down
That was then and this is now
Now look at me
